I. POLICY

- Establish Rules. Consistent with state, local and federal laws, it is the policy of the Baltimore Police Department (BPD) to establish rules and regulations for the good of the BPD, its members, and the community.
- Follow the Law. BPD employees are responsible for adhering to federal, state, and local laws, BPD policies, BPD trainings, and any applicable collective bargaining agreements and relevant labor laws.
- Regulate Conduct. Rules and Regulations are necessary for the achievement of BPD’s goals. Primary among these goals is a requirement that all members adopt a general standard of conduct both on and off-duty consistent with the professional standards of the law enforcement community.
- Exercise Good Judgement. All members, both sworn and civilian, shall be thoroughly familiar with the rules in this policy and other BPD policies and adhere to their requirements. Although these rules cannot and do not cover every specific act of conduct or specific situation which a member may face, their fundamental aim is to ensure optimum professionalism and safety, and shall be the prevailing guideline for all behavior. Members are required to exercise good judgment and their common sense, which, together with the highest degree of cooperation by those entrusted with law enforcement, is essential to effective police work.

5. Disciplined and Efficient. The development of a well-disciplined and efficient police department, which has the confidence and respect of the public, can only be accomplished when each member realizes that every action, whether it is a part of one's official duty or private life, is closely observed by the public. Acts of misconduct, unprofessional behavior, or poor police tactics not only reflect on the member as an individual, but on the Department as a whole. Any acts that even cast doubt on an officer's integrity, honesty, judgement, or character brings discredit to the Department and impairs its efficient and effective operation.
6. Penalties. Violations of this and other BPD policies may subject a member to discipline. Infractions of BPD rules and regulations resulting in discipline shall be recorded as provided in established BPD procedures.

II. POLICE COMMISSIONER'S AUTHORITY AND RESPONSIBILITY

1. The Omnibus Bill of 1966, known as Subtitle 16, Police Department, of the Code of Public Local Laws of Baltimore City, being Article 4 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, provides the Police Commissioner with all the powers, rights and privileges attending the responsibility of management of the Baltimore Police Department.
2. The Omnibus Bill grants the Police Commissioner the specific authority to do the following, among other functions:
 - 2.1. Regulate attendance, conduct, training, discipline and procedure for all members of the Department and to make all other rules, regulations and orders as may be necessary for the good of the Department and of its members.
 - 2.2. Suspend, amend, rescind, abrogate or cancel any rule, regulation, order or other Department policy adopted by the Police Commissioner (PC), or by any former PC, and to adopt all such other reasonable rules, regulations and orders as the PC may deem necessary to enable the Department to effectively discharge the duties imposed upon it by this subtitle.
3. The Police Commissioner has the power, consistent with law, to impose punishment as deemed appropriate under the circumstances for violations of the rules and regulations of the Department. Such punishment may include, but is not limited to, suspension from duty, fine or forfeiture of pay, reduction in rank, transfer, or dismissal from the Department.
4. The Police Commissioner may place charges against a member of the Department consistent with established procedures for any violation, either by omission or commission, of the Departmental rules, regulations or procedures, or for any conduct or omission detrimental to the good order, efficiency, or discipline of the Department. This rule shall apply in every case, even though such offense may not be specifically defined or set out in the rules, regulations, or procedures of the Department.
5. The Police Commissioner reserves the right to alter, amend or repeal any of these rules and regulations or to make additions thereto as circumstances may require.

- 5.1. If the occasion demands, the PC may issue verbal or written orders which shall have the same force and effect as these rules and regulations.

III. RULES AND REGULATIONS

A. RULE 1: CONDUCT

Any breach of the peace, neglect of duty, misconduct or any conduct or omission on the part of any member of the Department, either within or outside the City of Baltimore, and whether on or off duty, which tends to undermine the good order, efficiency or discipline of the Department, or which reflects discredit upon the Department or any member thereof, or which is prejudicial to the efficiency and discipline of the Department, shall be considered conduct unbecoming a member of the BPD. Any such conduct, even though these offenses may not be specifically enumerated or laid down, are subject to disciplinary action by the Police Commissioner, unless such conduct is protected by the Constitution of the United States, the Maryland Declaration of Rights, or any other federal, state or local law.

1. Members shall be professional, civil and orderly at all times, and shall refrain from coarse, profane, or insolent language.
2. No member shall engage in any conduct, whether verbal, written, by gesture, or any other means, that treats a person differently based on that person's race, sex, age, color, creed, national origin, marital status, sexual orientation, gender identity, disability, or social status. (See Policy 317, Fair and Impartial Policing for further guidance)
 - 2.1. No member shall discriminate against any person based on race, sex, age, color, creed, national origin, marital status, sexual orientation, gender identity, disability or social status.
 - 2.2. Commanding officers who receive a complaint or hear a concern made about potential discrimination or harassment, or who observe or learn of information about potential discrimination or harassment in some other manner, must report that information to the Equal Opportunity and Diversity Section (EODS).
 - 2.3. It is the duty of employees who have observed or are aware of others who have engaged in bias-based policing to specifically report such incidents to a supervisor, providing all information known to them, before the end of the shift during which they make the observation or become aware of the incident.
 - 2.4. No member shall retaliate against any person or other member who exercises their right to complain of acts of discrimination.
3. Members will meet the public with courtesy and consideration. Questions must be answered civilly and courteously. Members will not use facetious expressions while talking to the public.
4. Members have a duty to promote good public relations by giving assistance when it is required; by the impartial administration of the law; and by clean, sober, and orderly habits.

In such cases where regular household, physical, or telephone contact is unavoidable, the member shall inform his or her supervisor of the relationship.
 - 6.2. Members shall not knowingly engage in social or romantic relationships with confidential informants or victims or witnesses involved with active investigations.
 - 6.3. Except in the performance of official duties, members shall not knowingly enter any establishment in which the law is knowingly violated.

8. Members are prohibited from using unnecessary force.
 - 8.1. Members shall consult Policy 1115, Use of Force for the full Use of Force policy.

10. Members will fulfill their personal financial obligations.
11. Members shall not attempt to influence the Police Commissioner for the purpose of securing promotion or transfer, or to avoid the penalties for reprehensible action or conduct.
12. Any member of the Department, who being present at or having cognizance of any mutinous, seditious, rebellious or reactionary movement within the Department, must use the utmost effort to suppress same, or knowing or having reason to believe that such movement is to take place, must give information thereof to their commanding officer without delay. Commanding officers are required to report that information up the chain of command.
13. Members will familiarize themselves with, and comply with, the policies that concern a member's communications to the public, whether on or off-duty. All members shall comply with:
 - 13.1. Policy 601, Member Confidentiality Obligations and Media Releases,

17. Members will not make, orally or in writing, any false statement, or misrepresentation of any material fact, or make any material omission of fact, including but not limited to statements or omissions made with the intent to mislead any person or tribunal.
18. Members will be held strictly responsible for the proper performance of their duties.
 - 18.1. Members will maintain sufficient competency to properly perform their duties and assume the responsibilities of their positions. Members shall perform their duties in a manner which will maintain the highest standards of efficiency in carrying out the functions and objectives of the Department.
 - 18.2. Unsatisfactory performance may be demonstrated by a lack of knowledge of the application of laws required to be enforced; an unwillingness or inability to perform assigned tasks; the failure to conform to work standards established for the member's rank, grade and/or position; the failure to take appropriate action on the occasion of a crime, disorder or other condition deserving police attention; absence without leave; or unnecessary absence from the assigned patrol during a tour of duty.
 - 18.3. In addition to other indications of unsatisfactory performance, the following will be considered prima facie evidence of unsatisfactory performance:
 - 18.3.1. Repeated less than satisfactory evaluations or a written record of infractions of the rules, regulations, directives or orders;
 - 18.3.2. Repeated inability to perform the duties of a police officer in a satisfactory manner;

 - 18.3.4. The inability to make a forcible arrest, drive a vehicle under emergency conditions, and/or qualify with a weapon, for any reason;
 - 18.3.5. The inability to perform the essential functions required of a police officer as described herein in a safe and satisfactory manner;
 - 18.3.6. The demonstration of poor judgment that puts the officer's safety, the safety of his or her colleagues, or the safety of any citizen at unreasonable or unnecessary risk;
 - 18.3.7. Providing untruthful or false information, or making any material omission of fact, including in connection with any internal investigation, court proceeding, affidavit or other legal proceeding.

20. Members must be punctual in attendance to all calls, requirements of duty, medical/psychological appointments, court appointments, and other circumstances where a time is specified.
21. Members will not feign illness, avoid responsibility, or attempt to shirk their duties.
22. Sworn members are sworn in as peace officers of Baltimore City and, as such, are considered to be on-duty or ready for duty at all times. Failure to stop and perform the necessary police duties while off-duty or on leave shall be considered neglect of duty, unless a verified excuse is accepted by a supervisor.
 - 22.1. Necessary police duties while off-duty may include, but are not limited to:
 - 22.1.1. Immediately notifying the responsible law enforcement agency,
 - 22.1.2. Causing such notification, or
 - 22.1.3. Taking direct police action.
 - 22.2. Off-duty members, both inside and outside City limits, are to first consider whether the appropriate action can be effected by the on-duty members of the responsible law enforcement agency.
 - 22.2.1. Members should become directly involved only after due consideration of the gravity of the situation, their present physical and mental ability to act in an on-duty capacity and of their possible liability, along with that of the Department and the City of Baltimore.
 - 22.2.2. Members have no powers of arrest beyond those of common citizens when outside the City of Baltimore or properties owned by the City of Baltimore.
 - 22.2.3. Whenever members assume their official role and take direct police action, they are governed by all policies, rules and regulations applicable to on-duty members.
 - 22.3. The BPD acknowledges that circumstances and events may exist when it is in the best interest of the member, Department, and community, for sworn members to refrain from personally taking official police action while off-duty.
 - 22.3.1. Consistent with this, the BPD cautions off-duty sworn members to use discretion when invoking police powers, particularly involving the use of a firearm. This in no way, however, relieves sworn members from their obligation to notify appropriate on-duty authorities and provide assistance when necessary.
23. Members in uniform on patrol duty, or at any public gathering, shall not smoke or chew tobacco. Smoking or chewing tobacco is permitted at other times when done in an authorized location.
24. Members, while on-duty or when off-duty in uniform, shall not enter bars, taverns, or liquor establishments, except in the proper performance of their duties.

25. Members are prohibited from indulgence in intoxicating liquors while on-duty, or while off-duty in uniform. Only in cases requiring such action to carry out a duty assignment shall authority be granted to violate this rule. This authority must be given to the officer concerned by that officer's immediate superior.
 - 25.1. Habitual overindulgence is forbidden. Members, while off-duty, shall refrain from consuming intoxicating beverages to the extent that it results in obnoxious or offensive behavior which would discredit them or the BPD, or to such extent that at the time of the member's next regular tour of duty they are impaired or intoxicated and thereby unfit for duty.
26. Members will not bring any intoxicating liquor into any BPD building, boat, or vehicle, nor shall they permit same to be brought therein, except as required in the performance of police duty.
27. Members are strictly prohibited from playing cards, dice or engaging in any gambling or wagering activities on BPD property, in a BPD vehicle, while in BPD uniform or while on-duty, except as required in the performance of police duty. Members are also strictly prohibited from using BPD smart phones, laptops and other electronic devices for gambling or wagering purposes, whether on or off-duty.

29. Members will not accept any compensation, reward, gift, or other consideration without special written permission of the Police Commissioner.
 - 29.1. Members are directed to Subtitle 16, Police Department, Section 22, Monies in Special Fund, Subsection 3, of the Code of Public Local Laws of Baltimore City, being Article 4 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland; and the Criminal Law Article of Maryland entitled, "Offering bribe to or receiving bribe by public officer; witnesses in prosecution."
 - 29.2. No member shall accept any monetary reward for the apprehension or surrender of any military personnel absent without leave (AWOL).
30. Members, in their private business transactions with persons residing or doing business on their posts or elsewhere, will not place themselves in a position which would interfere with the proper discharge of their police duties.
31. No member shall engage in secondary employment or self-employment during on-duty hours, including for-profit business activities (e.g., selling any items or services).
32. Uniformed members, when encountering the Police Commissioner and other superior officers, except those assigned to plainclothes or detective duty, and superior officers in uniform when encountering each other, will salute in the prescribed manner. All uniformed members will also salute the Governor of Maryland and Mayor of Baltimore in the prescribed manner.
33. Members will refrain from making personal cellular telephone calls while on-duty, either in uniform or in plain-clothes capacity. When the infrequent occasion requires making a personal cellular telephone call, that communication shall be brief in duration and conducted out of public view.

34. Personal earpieces for entertainment devices are prohibited from use while on-duty, either in uniform or in plain-clothes capacity. The prohibited devices include, but are not limited to, speakers and microphones, both wired and wireless.
