

Georgia Department of Corrections Prisoner Notification

The United States has entered into international treaties with many countries, which may permit a foreign national prisoner from one of the treaty countries to transfer to his home country to serve the remainder of his sentence. The State of Georgia has enacted legislation, which allows it to participate in the international prisoner transfer program. The transfer program is discretionary and not everyone who applies will be qualified or will be approved by the State. The United States and your home country must also approve your application before a transfer can occur. If you are unsure whether or not your country participates in this program, please contact your counselor or your nearest consulate for more information. You may also need to contact your consulate to assist you and to determine if your home country has any additional requirements.
