VI. PROCEDURE:

- A. Each Detention Center Superintendent will insure that all detainees complete an orientation within three (3) working days of arrival. Certain professional staff members will be designated by the Superintendent to conduct orientation. These individuals will be thoroughly familiar with Center policy and practice and shall receive training in making the orientation presentation.
- B. The following guidelines will be followed in developing an orientation program:
 - 1. A specific written outline/script will be developed. Audio/visual aids may be utilized, but a staff member will be present and responsible for the presentation. The presentation itself will be standardized.
 - 2. The purpose and mission of the Detention Center will be presented. Emphasis will be placed on military protocol aspects of the Center's operation including requirements related to detainee conduct and military comportment.
 - 3. Work requirements and expected detainee behavior will be emphasized and discussed.
 - 4. Program requirements, opportunities and issues will be emphasized.
 - 5. Classification procedures will be presented.
 - 6. The Probation Officer/Designated Staff Member will review all conditions of probation.

7. Detainees will be told who their counselor is and how to contact him/her. Detainees will be advised of the names and responsibilities of key staff members and procedures for contacting them.
 8. Any inmate with a current or prior conviction for any sexual offense as defined in the Definitions section of the SOP shall not be allowed visitation with any person under 18 years of age unless such person is the spouse, son, daughter, brother, sister, grandson or granddaughter of the inmate and such person is not the victim of a sexual offense for which the inmate is convicted. If visitation of a minor is restricted by court order, permission for special visitation with the minor may be granted only by the court issuing such order.
 9. Detainees will meet with their assigned counselor to ask questions. Additionally, the Counselor will assist the detainee in completing his/her visitation list. Counselors will review all detainee administrative files assigned to their respective caseloads to ensure compliance with section VI.B.8 of this SOP and make necessary corrections to the identified detainee (s) visiting list (s). This will be documented on the Performance Recording Sheet of the Administrative file. After review, the Counselor will forward the visiting list to the Superintendent or designee for approval. Each detainee will sign a form that he/she has attended orientation and understands the information presented. The counselor will sign indicating completion of orientation and forward the form for placement in the case file. The Superintendent shall insure that the orientation program presents only valid, up-to-date information. To insure this, the contents of the presentation and materials must be reviewed frequently and revised as necessary.
- C. The Superintendent will insure that a detainee handbook is developed and written. A copy of the handbook will be issued to each detainee during the admissions process. The detainee will be required to sign for the numbered handbook if issued individually. Each detainee shall
