

IVRS ON-THE-JOB-TRAINING & EXTERNSHIPS

Externships

- This program enables your business to “try out” and train externs with no cost.
- Your business is not responsible for unemployment compensation during externships with no obligation to hire an individual once the externship is complete.

On The Job Training

- IVRS will reimburse 50% of a referral’s wages to offset the training costs for an employee with a disability
- The new employee will be on your payroll and covered by worker’s compensation

No Cost Consultation

- Assistance in developing a pipeline of talent with specific skill sets.
- The trainees who successfully complete the program we custom design are pre-screened to have the competencies necessary to be a qualified employee for your business.
