Revocation: Court-Directed

The Driver License Office charges a minimum fee of $6.25 to access your driver license record – this includes all questions, research, and all transactions.

Your driving privilege has been revoked because the judge felt that the seriousness of the offense and the circumstances surrounding the conviction warrant revocation. In many cases, a court-directed revocation is added on to another type of revocation to lengthen the total revocation period.

You have the following options depending on the type of revocation on your driver license record:

- APPLY TO BAR FOR EARLY REINSTATEMENT – If you do not want to wait out the revocation period, you can contact the Bureau of Administrative Review (BAR) to find out if you are eligible for a hardship license and request a hearing. If BAR approves your application for a hardship license you will be issued a driver license with a specific restriction and it will be mailed from Central Issuance in Tallahassee. Our office cannot advise you whether or not you are eligible for a hardship license.

If BAR refers you to our office after they have approved your application for a hardship license, our office can issue the license, provided BAR has indicated on your record that you have been authorized and the specific restriction that must be added. In this case, you would be required to pay the $81.25 reinstatement fee(s) when our office issues your license.

If you do not want to apply for early reinstatement (hardship license), you must wait out your revocation period and then submit the following to our office based on the type of revocation.

- REVOCAION EXTENSION FOR DUI CONVICTION – You must wait out the revocation period and then submit the following to our office.
 - Proof of enrollment or completion of DUI School effective after the offense date. The proof will be scanned and subject to verification. (Contact State College of Florida for information and dates for DUI School: (941) 752-5286 or www.scf.edu.) This will also satisfy the requirements to clear the administrative suspension, if it's still on your record.
 - If incarcerated as a result of the DUI, you would need to provide your Release from Incarceration (72077). This will be emailed to the Division of Driver Licenses and be subject to verification.
 - Pay the reinstatement fee of $211.25. (The reinstatement and administrative fees are charged for each revocation.) If your administrative suspension is also on your record, an additional $45.00 reinstatement fee would also apply.

- CONVICTION VIOLATION REVOCAION – You must wait out the revocation period and then submit the following to our office.
 - If the conviction was related to an alcohol offense, proof of enrollment or completion of DUI School effective after the offense date. The proof will be scanned and subject to verification. (Contact the State College of Florida for information and dates for DUI School: (941) 752-5286 or www.scf.edu.)
 - If not related to an alcohol offense, proof of completion of ADI School effective after the offense date. The proof will be scanned and subject to verification.
 - Pay the reinstatement fee of $81.25. (The reinstatement fee is charged for each revocation.)
