The Driver License Office charges a _minimum_ fee of $6.25 to access your driver license record – _this includes all questions, research, and all transactions._

Your driving privilege has been _revoked_ for a minimum of 1 year because you were convicted of committing fraudulent insurance claims.

You have _two options_ when you have this revocation on your record:

☐ #1 WAIT OUT THE REVOCATION PERIOD – Once the expiration date has passed, you would need to pay the $261.25 reinstatement fee. (This fee is charged for _each_ insurance fraud revocation.)

☐ #2 APPLY TO BAR FOR EARLY REINSTATEMENT – If you do not want to wait out the revocation period, you can contact the Bureau of Administrative Review (BAR) to find out if you are eligible for a _hardship license_ and _request a hearing_. If BAR approves your application for a hardship license you will be issued a driver license with a _specific restriction_ and it will be mailed from Central Issuance in Tallahassee. Our office cannot advise you whether or not you are eligible for a _hardship license_.

If BAR refers you to our office after they have approved your application for a hardship license, our office can issue the license, provided BAR has indicated on your record that you have been authorized and the _specific restriction_ that must be added. In this case, you would be required to pay the _$261.25_ reinstatement fee when our office issues the license. (The reinstatement and administrative fees are charged for each revocation.)

Need to replace or renew your license?

You will be required to pay an additional $25 to $48 at the time of reinstatement and you must submit documents that establish your identity pursuant to the Real ID Act (e.g. US birth certificate, US passport, USCIS/INS documents, proof of name change(s), Social Security Card and 2 proofs of residential address) unless you already have a Real ID compliant Florida driver license. For a complete list of acceptable identity documents, visit flhsmv.gov/whattobring.

Not a Manatee County resident? Our offices are open to the public by appointment only for Manatee County residents/businesses. All out-of-county residents must visit their home county for processing.
